Ladies Sample RAINCOATS AND CLOAKS

This season's cloak business with manufacturers is over but just beginning with the wearers. The manufacturers are disposing of their samples.

Today we bought a line of sample raincoats, cloaks and furs at a price much below their value and which will be sold on the same low basis. In the lot we have about one dozen real nice furs ranging in value from $10.00 to $15.00 each. You should see these furs for Xmas Presents.

Cloaks and raincoats are now on sale and those still in need of a cloak should come early as these will be sold in a few days.

DESTRUCTIVE RESIDENCE FIRE NARROWLY AVARTED

About six o'clock Monday evening fire was discovered in one of the rooms of W. J. Baugh's residence at corner of 16th and Cherry streets. But for its timely discovery and prompt assistance of neighbors with buckets the building would have been destroyed.

The origin of the fire is quite a mystery.

It caught in a room rarely used by the family and which contains no stove nor flue connections from which a spark could have come. The room contained a large wardrobe, the receptacle of most of the family's clothes. About six o'clock one of the children, passing by the door, saw flames licking about the door and at once gave the alarm. Neighbors rushed in and extinguished the blaze before it got to the air. The only damage is the wardrobe of clothing either destroyed or ruined and the interior of the room seriously charred. Altogether, the damage will hardly exceed $275, fully covered by insurance. The fire department made a quick run, but the fire was extinguished before its arrival.

Mr. Baugh thinks there was not even a match in his house, and it seems almost certain that the fire originated in or about the wardrobe. So, probably the cause will remain one of these inexplicable mysteries.

Commercial Club.

The citizens of Ada in mass meeting are earnestly urged to meet Tuesday evening under the auspices of the Commercial Club, at the court house to simply determine whether Ada will secure the third railroad. The president of the road has handed the town an ultimatum, and unless immediate positive action is taken, the road will likely be lost. This matter is of pressing importance. Every man who owns a foot of Ada real estate should be present and assist in deciding whether Ada shall have the road. Other important business will be transacted. At 233 T. J. Chambliss, President.

New Methodist Church.

On Monday the authorities of the Ada Methodist church made choice of the plans and specifications submitted for the new church building to be erected at the corner of Townsend and 14th street. Though it was a free-for-all competition among architects, only two firms competed. The plans and specifications of Messrs. Parr and Smith, of Denison, were accepted. They call for a solid brick building, guaranteed to cost not exceeding $10,000. Work will likely begin on the structure soon after the holidays.

AND

The Ladies' Home Journal Patterns

Alike they have met with an enthusiastic welcome by the public. Alike they fit into the economy of the hour.

MANY POINTS OF SIMILARITY.

The pattern is new, practical, winsomely presented—distinctly an improvement over the best heretofore, and at the right price, too.

The store is new also; bright, attractive, broad-gauge and liberal in policy; active, clever and resourceful in management, with the willingness and ability to sell good merchandise cheap—decidedly an improvement over everything hereabouts.

It's a great combination. The Right Pattern for the Best Store. The Right Store for the Best Pattern.

RIOTS RESULT FROM BOYCOTT TROUBLES

Washington, Dec. 19.—The State Department has news from Shanghai of a serious situation there. Two cablegrams received at the department over night state that trouble arose through a strike and was increased by a dispute growing out of some cases being tried before the consular courts. Two foreigners have been killed and many wounded. Naval forces, supposedly from the British squadron, which are there, are guarding the streets. Police stations have been burned. No Americans have thus far been injured, but the official statement was made that the situation is regarded as serious. Two American cruisers are now on their way to Shanghai.

Shanghai, Dec. 19.—The riot is suppressed. Twenty Chinese coolies were killed and a few Europeans were wounded. Otherwise the damage was slight.

Police, sailors and volunteers cooperated in suppressing the riots, in the course of which one police station was partly burned, a barroom was wrecked and a bicycle store looted. No European was killed. The streets are now deserted except for small patrols, which are everywhere.

CALENDAR OF CRIME GROWS APPALLING

The town of Francis seems almost to have troubles with holiday booze. A shipment containing drugs and alcohol, consigned to D. C. Brady at that place, was taken from the depot Sunday night and later the drugs were found secreted in a gully. Three respectable citizens were arrested and brought to Ada Monday night, charged with the crime of grand larceny therewith. They are: Roy Primm, night caller for the Frisco; Will McCabe, Frisco fireman; Joe West, a good farmer, the latter's brother-in-law. But for the drugs in the shipment no crime would have been committed. As it is, the parties are today on trial in preliminary hearing.

Last Saturday night seven prisoners were brought in from the Francis neighborhood. They were arrested on various indictments and their names are as follows: John Williamson, five cases; Lige Melton, two cases; Will Williamson, Deb Rains, Ira Seroggins, Jack Matthews and Calvin Huff.

Monday evening Deputy Cummings came in with two prisoners, Marcus McDaniel, and Riley McCurley of Palmer, I. T., who is charged with introducing liquor in the Central District.

The local marshal's office is full of business these days. It is stated that the whiskey troubles are unprecedented. The office is besieged with letters from neighboring places, complaining of the volume of liquor being smuggled in.

THREE BIG CHICAGO BANKING HOUSES FAIL

Chicago, Ill., Dec. 18. Three of the largest financial institutions in the West—The Chicago National Bank, Home Savings Bank and the Equitable Trust Company—all of them controlled by John R. Walsh of this city, and in a great measure owned by him, suspended operations yesterday. The affairs will be liquidated as rapidly as possible and they will go out of business.

The immediate cause of the collapse of the institutions controlled by Mr. Walsh is said to be the large amount of money which they have loaned to various private enterprises of his—notably the Southern Indiana Railway and the Bedford Quarries Company of Indiana.

Delegates Returned.

Oklahoma City, Ok., Dec. 19.—J. H. Johnston, J. Hensley of this city and Lee Cruce of Ardmore, and other single statehood delegates who went to Washington, returned today and say they feel confident that statehood will be granted at this session. Mr. Cruce stated that President Roosevelt informed the delegates that they were entitled to statehood and that if the present congress did not grant it he would call an extra session to consider the matter.

NOW REPORTED REMOVED INSTEAD OF RESIGNED

Washington, Dec. 19.—By direction of the president the attorney general has removed from office William B. Johnson, United States Attorney for the Southern district of Indian Territory.

This follows the insistence of Mr. Johnson against the judgment of the president that the Chickasaw warrant cases should be prosecuted. He gave notice of resignation if the action in the warrant cases was longer deferred and his removal is doubtless connected with that intention. President Roosevelt recommended the dismissal of the warrant cases to which Mr. Johnson took exception.

ADA EVENING NEWS.

OFFICIAL CITY PAPER.

OTIS B. WEAVER & CO., PUBLISHERS
M. D. STEINER, BUSINESS MANAGER

Entered as Second class matter March 26, 1904, at the Postoffice at Ada, Indian Territory, under the Act of Congress March 3, 1879

Advertising rates furnished on application.

ADA CITIZENS MUST ACT TONIGHT.

The business man in Ada who goes home this evening, and without good and sufficient reason, remains at home and away from the mass meeting of the Ada citizens who must decide tonight whether Ada is to be a railroad center or a cheap agricultural village, is not deserving of business success, has no right to be in a good town and should be viewed by his wife and children with suspicion and apprehension in estimating the quality of the character of their Lord and master. The Ada citizen may be a property owner and honestly feel that Ada should not pay this railroad bonus or that she has not the ability to raise so much money, then it is just as evident by his duty to meet with his fellow citizens, express and vote his views and like a man sanction the action of the majority and do his proportionate part.

The president of the Oklahoma Central Railroad has agreed to build the road into Ada for $20,000 and right of way, which means a bonus of $30,000. He has demanded that the town take action. No action certainly means no road. You are implored to be present. Just a little further indifference and disposition to burden part with the responsibilities of the whole, and you, to view Ada's best days will be compelled to do so in retrospective vision.

W. B. JOHNSON, AN HONORABLE COMPETENT GENTLEMAN

A dispatch from Washington says that W. B. Johnson, by the direction of the President, has been removed from office.

If such be true, new state democracy will be benefitted, for when the Republican party, in the face of many incompetent officials and foreign unsympathetic appointees in the Indian Territory, will depose a notably honorable and highly efficient gentleman and citizen of his district as is W. B. Johnson, the more conscientious Republicans must become dissatisfied. The News believes Mr. Johnson to be one of the best men in the two territories, and the very strongest man the Republicans of the Indian Territory possess.

C. K. Davenport Marries.

The many friends of Mr. Charlie Davenport, especially those who were formerly of his home town in Texas, were greatly surprised yesterday, when Rev. Jno A. Williams returned from Stonewall with the announcement that he had just married that exceptionally good citizen to Mrs. C. E. Hatcher, a widow lady well and favorably known to the earlier residents of the Ada country she having been a resident of Stonewall the several latter years.

Though a native of Georgia, most of Mr. Davenport's mature years were spent in Northeast Texas. There he was a member of one of the best families of the section. Since his four years' residence in Ada he has maintained his standing as a conspicuously good citizen.

He has always had the best wishes of the editor in his undertakings, and the same are heartily accorded him in his new matrimonial enterprise.

Notice.

Ordinance No. 19 of the Town of Ada reads as follows: "That it shall be unlawful for any one within the corporate limits of the town of Ada to discharge any cannon, gun, fowling piece, pistol or fire arms of any kind or description, or to explode or set off any squibs or fire crackers or other things containing powder or other combustible explosive material except in cases of necessity and for the performance of any kind of work, unless permission is first obtained from the mayor in writing, limiting the time and naming the place for such firing, subject to be revoked by the mayor at any time, and any person violating this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction be fined in any sum not exceeding $25.00."

This ordinance will be enforced during the holidays except on Saturday evening from 6 o'clock to 9 o'clock p. m., on all streets south of 12th street and north of 10th street except within a block of cotton yards, oil mill, gins and compress, small fire crackers not exceeding two inches in length, Roman candles, toy pistols with paper caps and such light fire works may be fired. But the firing of cannon fire crackers down to above 2 inches in length guns, pistols, toy pistols firing blank cartridges, walking canes and such heavily charged and dangerous and noisy fireworks is absolutely forbidden, and the marshal and police force will see that this ordinance is enforced in accordance herewith.

Doctors Could Not Help Her

"I had kidney trouble for years," writes Mrs. Raymond Conner of Shelton, Wash., "and the doctors could not help me. I tried Foley's Kidney Cure, and the very first dose gave me instant relief and I am now cured. I cannot say too much for Foley's Kidney Cure." It makes the diseased kidneys sound so they will eliminate the poisons from the blood. Unless they do this good health is impossible. Clark Drug Co. and Mason Drug Co.

BEGINNING OF FOOTBALL.

Believed to Have Had Its Origin as Part of the Sun Worship of Celts.

A book published at Venice in 1556 by Antonio Coano relates methods of play in a real football that was actually called by the same name. The field "was so large that no one, however strong, could quite throw a stone from one end to the other," and it was about half as wide. Twenty, 30 or 40 persons could participate on a side, the number being regulated by the size of the available field. Goals were set up at either end. No one was permitted to strike the ball with the outstretched arm or with anything he might carry in his hand. Nevertheless, he was permitted to "strike the ball with whatever part of his body that he pleased." If the ball came rolling toward him he was allowed to kick it, the inference being that if it were lying still he could not do so. The field was divided by a transverse line "into two equal parts, and in the middle lay the ball. The players were chosen, those who were going to make up the opposing parties, by means of colors, by which, in the struggle of the contest, each could recognize his own side. When the signal was given by the roll of the drum or the blast of a trumpet a player rushed forward, one who had been chosen by lot to be the first to kick the ball with his foot. This action was understood to be the beginning of the contest, so that after it, it was permitted to no one from either party to seize it, to strike it, and to drive it as victor over the goal. It was perhaps from the method of the beginning of the game that it was called football.

These Italian games had their origin in the ancient pastimes of the Greeks and Romans, and in reality approach nearer to the modern idea of football than do the beginnings of the game in modern countries. Football is believed by some authorities to have been a portion of the worship of the Celtic sun god, one of the rites attendant on the celebrative ceremonies. Some also hold a strong belief that its original form was introduced into England by the Romans.

IMPOSITIONS IN EATABLES.

Various Articles Sold in France Are Not What They Are Represented to Be.

When you order truffles in France you are likely to get something you are not paying for. The French people know that the truffle is at times adulterated, and what is palmed off for truffle, says the New York Times, is often black rubber or black silk or softened leather or roasted potatoes, which are given a peculiar flavor by adding ether. It is said these substitutes sell well.

In Paris, where snails are very popular they are adulterated with lungs of cattle and horses. Even entire snails are manufactured. The discarded shells of snails which have been eaten are recoated with fat and slime and filled with lung tissue and then sold as Burgundy snails.

French fish dealers smear vaseline over stale fishes to give them a fresh appearance. To impart the correct color to the gills of fish which have been a long time out of the water they paint the gills with eosin, a coal tar product having a red color.

Even things made in Germany are not always what they seem to be. It is stated that an ordinary liver paty is made into fine Strasburger pate de foie gras by means of borax or salicylic acid, and finely chopped and cleverly distributed pieces of black silk to represent truffles.

DURING HOLY PILGRIMAGE.

Sacred Square of Mecca Presents a Picturesque and Impressive Sight.

Like a gigantic catafalque, somber, shrouded in mystery, the Kaaba rises out of the seething sea of white garbed humanity that crowds the great, sacred square of Mecca, says everybody's Magazine. Its door is covered with plates of solid silver, studded with silver nails. From the exterior of the roof, above a stone marking the sepulcher of Ishmael, which lies at the base of the northern wall, there projects a horizontal, semi-circular rain spout, five yards long, 24 inches wide, made of massive gold. Within, the roof is supported by three columns of alce wood; the walls are hung with red velvet alternating with white squares in which are written in Arabic the words, "Allah-Jal-Jelal," Praise to God the Almighty. The building is packed with pilgrims, praying, weeping, beside themselves in an ecstasy of passionate devotion. Mingled with their voices there rises from outside the chant of the Talibih, the Song of the Winding Sheet, which every pilgrim must sing on entering the Mecca, on donning the sacred ihram, on entering the haram and on starting for Mina, the Valley of Desire, and Arafat, the Mountain of Compassion.

Christianity and Meat.

Prof. Yoshitaro Nakamura, graduate of the Imperial agricultural college in Sapporo, Japan, is at the Minnesota state school of agriculture taking a special course in animal industry and meats. He is especially interested in the packing business and has visited the big plants in Chicago and elsewhere. Prof. Nakamura says that on account of the Buddhist religion the Japanese have been averse to eating meats, but now that Japan is adopting the Christian religion the prejudices against eating meats have to a certain extent disappeared.
